

ICA REGIONAL CONFERENCE 2019

"Searching for the Next Level of Human Communication: Human, Social, and Neuro (Society 5.0)"

Guidelines for Authors

Submission of Manuscript

1. Manuscripts submitted to ICA Regional Conference 2019 should be original contributions and should not have been previously published nor under consideration for publication elsewhere. Individual and multiple authors are welcome to contribute.
2. Only full papers submitted on or before the deadline will be considered for inclusion in the conference proceedings
3. Paper should follow the format and style described in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA, 6th edition).
4. All manuscripts are referred through a blind review process by academic experts in the particular field of the submitted paper(s) prior to acceptance.

Note to all authors: By submitting your paper, you agree to register for the conference and present the paper. All co-authors attending and/or presenting must register too.

Format for Papers

1. Manuscripts must be written in English
2. The length of paper should be around 10-20 pages, typed in MS WORD or RTF format, using 12-point Times New Roman font, single-spaced with standard margin (exception of tables 10-point Times New Roman). Please use plain text and not formatting.
3. A concise and factual abstract is required (400-500 words) to state briefly the purpose of the research, the principal results and major conclusions.
4. Manuscript should include the following major sections: title page, abstract, introduction, method, research results and discussion, conclusion, and references.
5. The title page should contain the title of the paper, name of author(s), institutional affiliation, present position and complete address (including telephone/fax and e-mail). Author's name should not appear anywhere except on the cover page of only main copy of the manuscript (to preserve anonymity during the blind review process).
6. Tables and figures (300dpi) should be clearly labeled, in the format and style described in APA (6th edition) and suitable for direct reproduction.
7. References should be cited in the text by placing sequential numbers in brackets (for example, [1], [2, 5, 7], [8-10]). They should be numbered in the order in which they are cited. Follow the format and style described in APA (6th edition).

FULL TITLE

Abstract

Fill in this part with research abstract. Abstract should contain the aim of the study, research methods (data collection procedure, data analysis procedure) and research findings. Abstract should NOT be more than 500 words. Use Times New Roman, 12pt. and 1 line spacing. Following the abstract, keywords should be provided in alphabetical order to describe the contents of the research.

Keywords: keyword 1, keyword 2, keyword 3, etc. (NOT more than 6 words)

(Page 3 and the rest of the pages)

INTRODUCTION

Fill in this section with the introduction of your research. This should contain the background of study supported by citations taken from books, newspapers, journal articles, internet, etc. Introduction also explains the scope and objective of the study which are related to current knowledge and issues. Also give a new interpretation of old material or combine new with old interpretations, Trace the intellectual progression of the field, including major debates.

LITERATURE REVIEW AND METHODS

Fill in this section with literature review and methods used in your research. Describe how the research is conducted by elaborating research approaches, participants, data collection procedure (e.g. sampling) and data analysis procedure.

RESULTS AND DISCUSSIONS

Fill in this section by elaborating research results/findings along with the discussions. This generally contains the analysis on the collected data. The analysis may also be supported by equations, formulae, tables, figures and photograph, as well as any related citations from books, journal articles, newspaper, internet, etc.

Equations and Formulae

Equations should be centered and should be numbered with the number on the right-hand side.

Tables

All tables should be prepared in a form consistent with recent issues of ICA themes and should be numbered consecutively with Roman numerals. Explanatory material should be given in the table legends and footnotes.

Figures & Photographs

Submit an original figure or photograph. You are free to use color illustrations for the online version of the proceedings but any print version will be printed in black and white unless special arrangements have been made with the conference organizer.

General rules on Figures and Tables

1. All Figures and Tables should be numbered sequentially (e.g. Table 1, Table 2 etc.) and cite each one in your writing as Table 1 or Figure 1.
2. All tables should be referenced in the text of the paper and in the reference list. Each table should have an individual title. Each word in the title should be italicized and capitalized except with, of, in, and, etc.

CONCLUSIONS

Fill in this section by stating your brief final conclusions drawn from the results and discussions.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Individuals and entities that have provided essential support such as research grants and fellowships and other sources of funding should be acknowledged. Contributions that do not involve researching (clerical assistance or personal acknowledgements) should not appear in acknowledgements.

REFERENCES

Fill in this part with all references cited in your research. References should be cited in the text by placing sequential numbers in brackets (for example, [1], [2, 5, 7], [8-10]). They should be numbered in the order in which they are cited. A complete reference should provide enough information to locate the article. Follow the APA style referencing (6th edition), example :
